

CAMDEN PRIEST IS TRANSFERRED

Father McCallion Made Assistant to Monsignor Cantwell in Perth Amboy

PRISONER TRIES L. E. A. P.

The Rev. Francis J. McCallion, first assistant pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Camden, will leave today for Perth Amboy, N. J. He will be assistant to Monsignor Cantwell.

For six years Father McCallion has been a curate at the Immaculate Conception parish. He was a young priest in the Trenton diocese. An orator of extraordinary ability, Father McCallion has scores of times addressed big gatherings in Camden.

He was an active member of the Camden Rotary Club and recently addressed the members of the local club. At the New Jersey Bankers' Convention in Atlantic City he was one of the principal speakers and was present at the same table with President Harding.

Father McCallion's departure from Camden is deeply regretted. He was extremely popular both among Catholics and those of other faiths.

Seeking to have his former wife, Mrs. Helen F. Dickinson, of Merchantville, adjudged guilty of contempt of court, Charles F. Dickinson, wholesale grocer of Camden, has filed a rule to show cause in the Chancery Court at Camden, declaring that the former Mrs. Dickinson has ignored the order of Vice Chancellor Leaning to permit him to have the custody of their youngest child, Marjorie Lee Dickinson, on Friday and Saturday of each week.

Mr. Dickinson charges that his former wife has permitted him to enjoy the company of his daughter at his mother's home only on two occasions since January 12 last, when the order of visitation was made. The rule is returnable next Monday in the Camden Chancery Court.

The Dickinsons were divorced a year ago when Mrs. Dickinson brought charges of infidelity. After the divorce Dickinson married the woman named as respondent in the action. Before marital difficulties Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson were popular in Camden County society.

Shouting that he wanted to die, Frank Chew, a barber, of 827 South Fifth street, Camden, made an unsuccessful attempt yesterday morning to jump from a window in Camden Police Court. Chew dived through the window which was open, but he was caught by George Meyer, of 512 Lester Terrace. Fighting the officer who tried to restrain him, Chew was taken to a cell.

Chew was charged with the larceny of a watch. He suddenly darted from the prisoner's dock and started for the window and took a dive through the open window. It is believed that Chew is deranged. He will be examined for insanity.

ILLEGAL DISTILLERY RAIDED AT SHORE

Pastor, Hearing Barroom Hilarity, Sends Woman for Evidence—Arsenal Found

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger Atlantic City, May 24. — Sounds bearing a striking resemblance to the hilarity of the old-time barroom proved the undertone of the scene at the 1120 Arctic avenue, last night.

While passing the establishment, presumably a general grocery store, shortly after dark, the Rev. J. B. Adams, of Ocean City, who, in addition to his pastoral duties, is a Federal prohibition agent, became suspicious of the sounds, and sent woman operative on a shopping trip. She returned with a quart of whiskey, obtained, she said, at the place in exchange for $8.

Mr. Adams then obtained a search warrant, and with members of the City Hall vice squad entered the place. They found a completely equipped miniature distillery and a quantity of corn liquor. In addition to the anti-Volstead goods, the raiders found a store to be a veritable arsenal. Revolvers, knives and knives were found secreted in closets and drawers in all directions.

A Federal warrant has been issued for Hardy, who was not in when the raiding party called.

Delegates are arriving here today for the semi-annual convention of the New Jersey Building and Loan League, which opens tomorrow. The chief speaker at the two-day conference will be William E. Cune, Jr., State Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, and leading candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the fall. Other speakers will be Daniel Crawford, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Charles O. Hennessey, of the National League of Building and Loan Associations.

The National Association of Worsteds and Woolen Spinners elected these officers: President, Stanley R. Stager, Philadelphia; vice president, H. Leroy Pitkin, Passaic, N. J.; secretary-treasurer, J. J. Nevins, New York.

Resolutions urging establishment of a national home and endorsing the South-Downer bill will be placed before the annual sessions of the National League of Masonic Clubs at the meeting here today, and unanimous adoption without discussion is expected.

Yesterday 400 delegates, representing a membership of close to half a million, were throughout the country among forgers and mapped out plans for wider influence in their respective communities in addition to handling routine matters.

President Lynn H. Troutman, of Washington, in his annual address declared the growth of the organization this year had been steady, despite the industrial depression, and he looked for a greatly increased enrollment this year.

PELTED WITH ROTTEN EGGS

Polish Foreign Minister Assaulted by Former Ukrainian Officers Vienna, May 24.—The Polish Foreign Minister, Constantine Skirmunt, was pelted with rotten eggs here last night as he was going into a dinner he had arranged for the representatives of the foreign press. His face was bruised and his clothes ruined by the attack.

Three of the miscreants, who proved to be former Ukrainian officers, were arrested. They gave as their reason for "bolshoi" Schober called upon M. Skirmunt and expressed his regret at the incident.

HOLD EUCHARIST CONGRESS

10,000 Delegates From All Over the World Gather in Rome May 24.—(By A. P.)—

thousand delegates from all parts of the world gathered in the outside court of Belvedere at the Vatican today for the opening of the twenty-sixth International Eucharistic Congress.

The program of the conference, which will continue until next Monday, provides for a number of notable features, including another papal benediction from the outside loggia of St. Peter's and a pontifical procession with the sacrament through the heart of Rome.

FIGHT WITH INDIANS MARKS "DAYS OF '49" CELEBRATION

Spectacular Feature Introduced in Sacramento's Historical Pageant Sacramento, Calif., May 24.—Captain John A. Sutter, Swiss adventurer and founder of Sacramento in 1839, landed from the Sacramento River with his company yesterday, overcame an attack by Indians after he had been excited from the ambush by United States Army regulars and resumed his march to the site where he later built Sutter's Fort, Sacramento's historic landmark.

Thus did Eohart Bosworth, screen actor, in the role of the partner of James Marshall, later discoverer of the gold which brought California to the notice of the world, open Sacramento's celebration of the "Days of '49."

The battle near the Federal Building was spectacular. Scores of Indians "bit the dust," although there were some casualties among the whites.

Pitman Opens Paving Bids Pitman, N. J., May 24.—Nine contractors presented bids for the paving of Holly avenue, Pitman, with concrete for the width of twenty feet and the distance of about a mile. Michael Staub, of Swedesboro, had the low bid at $78,200.45, and Council will meet next Monday night to award the contract.

THE FLAME OF ASIA

Over Asia the irrepressible longing of people to govern themselves is bursting into flame. In India, Gandhi's movement threatens the peace of British India for the Indians; in Asia Minor, Mustafa Kemal heads a national organization that stands for the integrity of Turkey. Turkey for the Turk! In the Far Eastern Republic the Siberians are making a good fight against odds. Free Siberia! These stupendous experiments are made clear in political articles in June
